

06 April 2011

Re: Working Draught Horse Expo 11th – 12th June, 2011

Hello,

On behalf of the Working Draught Horse Expo , I 'd like to formally invite you to participate in this the 18th Working Draught Horse Expo, which will be held at the Jondaryan Woolshed on Saturday 11th and Sunday 12th June, 2011.

The Committee has been working at developing a varied program that will provide those interested in both heavy and light harness horses, the opportunity to learn more by networking with others, to compete and show, in a truly historic setting.

You'll see I've enclosed your competitor's pack which includes: the Rule Book; Entry Forms; Disclaimer Form as well as an Order Form.

Your attention is drawn to Friday, 13th May 2011, which is the closing date for all entries.

Please read the Rule Book and Time Table carefully so that you become familiar with the various changes.

The Woolshed now has a qualified chef on staff who will be providing our meals.

The Jondaryan Breakfast will cost $12.50 per adult and $8.00 per child.

Friday night dinner is camp-oven stew with Damper and dessert. This will cost $18.50 for adult $14.50 for child.

Saturday night is a BBQ at the servery for $7.50 per person. Entertainment will be supplied in the 152 year old Jondaryan Woolshed. The Habels, a family of Singers and Musicians who showcase music variations from the Bee Gees to Robbie Williams and the sounds of Snow Patrol and Ronan Keating; with a basis in German Traditional music and the classics of Rogers and Hammerstein.

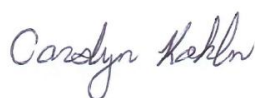

The Woolshed staff and volunteers will operate a Barbeque and Bar during the evening, with other refreshments available.

Sunday night dinner is Roast Beef with Vegetables and dessert. This will cost $18.50 for adult $14.50 for child.

Details of the camping facilities are listed in the Rule Book. However, because of limited sites, it is important that you make your booking, if you wish to reserve a powered site, please contact me as soon as possible.

I look forward to seeing you at the Expo. If you require additional information, please call me directly on 07 4691 5262.

Regards,

Carolyn Kohler,
Secretary for the
WDHE Committee